Photo-Album of the Ministry. Containing very fine half-tone engravings of the elders, over 225 of the ministry being represented. These portraits are from cuts made especially for this album, and are faithful likenesses of the elders as they appear to-day, with the exception of the Quorum of the High Priests, some of the photos of which are several years old. The newly organized First Presidency and Quorum of Twelve were photographed at Lamoni during the last General Conference and cuts made for this album. It will also contain the latest photos of David H. Smith and his son, Elbert, as well as some of the prominent sisters of the church. Some fine views of Independence, also buildings of interest, to the Saints, etc., will be shown. The Album is beautifully printed on fine enameled paper.
